Orleans Junior-Senior High School.

The high school baseball team succeeded in defeating the Barton academy team Friday on their own grounds. The score, 10-4.

A period of forty minutes will be taken Monday of each week for music. The first period was taken on Monday and next week the second period will be taken, and so on for eight weeks, when it will start on the first period again. The pupils are seemingly enjoying the new schedule.

Boy Scouts Notes.

If the weather permits, the first half of the Orleans Troop field meet will be held on Skinner Athletic field Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The contestants will include four groups selected according to weight. Group one includes all under 90 pounds, group two, 90-105, group three 105-120, group four all over 120. The events for next Saturday are the ball throw, the sack race and the 50-, 75- and 100-yard dashes. A picked relay race also may be run. All winners of first second and third places will receive ribbons. Regular weekly meeting Thursday at 7.30.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

Clarence D. Pierce, Pastor
Prayer meeting tonight.

Sunday services—

Morning worship at 10.30.
Bible school, 12 m.
Vesper service, 7.30 p. m.

The special music at the Sunday evening service was greatly enjoyed by the people. Messrs. Moulton and Potter will continue to assist the choir and the public is invited to consider the pleasure and opportunity of these services.

Oct. 26 is to be observed as good literature Sunday. A special program and order of service will be used.

The subject of the Sunday evening sermon will be, "Fishin' Jimmy." He was a life character in the Francofia valley that was translated into a book by Annie Trumbull Slosson.

Last Sunday was promotion day in the Sunday school. The exercises were well taken. Thirty-six pupils were advanced to a higher department and received certificates of promotion and a large number of the members of the junior department of the school received special certificates of recognition. Arrangements are being completed for the organization of two new classes. This will provide for the entire graded system being used in the school.

Everybody keep in mind the Halloween chicken-pie supper on Thursday evening, Oct. 30.

Hospital Notes.

Miss Laura J. Pickett of 81 Fort St., Montreal, is receiving treatment at the hospital.

Mrs. Clinton Orne of Coventry was operated on for appendicitis Friday by Dr. J. M. Allen of St. Johnsbury and is recovering nicely.

Miss Anne B. Jones has deposited in the Orleans Central Savings Bank & Trust Co., the sum of $500 for the Orleans hospital to be used in defraying the hospital expenses of those children and adults in the village of Orleans, who are unable financially to meet such expenses. Two of the St. Johnsbury surgeons, Dr. J. M. Allen and Dr. Wm. G. Ricker, have kindly offered their services, free gratis, to help the good work along. It is the sincere desire of Miss Jones that her gift may form the nucleus of a much larger sum for the promotion of the community spirit in our village.
